

Client Information and Consent Form

Diktyнна Istron Bay Rituals offers elixirs, herbs, and related practices as part of a complementary wellness experience. These services are designed to support well-being alongside conventional care and are not a substitute for medical diagnosis, treatment, or advice. Clients should consult their physician regarding any medical concern or prescribed treatment.

For a safe and personalised session, clients must disclose any relevant medical condition, allergy, pregnancy, breastfeeding, medication, or sensitivity before treatment. By signing below, the client confirms that this information has been provided accurately and gives consent to the use of appropriate elixirs and/or herbal preparations during the session.
